What is a Seder? It is the celebration of the Jewish Passover. We follow as closely as we can the order of the meal as celebrated by Jesus and his disciples the night before Jesus was crucified.

Why attend the Seder? To learn more about the customs of Jesus' time and gain a greater appreciation for the context out of which the Lord's Supper was given to us.

Visit www.johnsonstreetchurch.org to register or call the church office.

RAMS FOR CHRIST

Doug Johnson, ASU Campus Minister

"March—April"

It seems like March was occupied mostly with preparing for and recovering from our mission trip to Tuba City, AZ. It was a blessed time impossible to relate in this short space, but it was filled with hard work, deep community, worship, broadened horizons, sweat (lodge), and witnessing some amazing creation of God. Thank you for your prayers throughout this experience! I ask that you further pray that the experiences translate into students' lives transformed and turned outward here at ASU.

This semester has been filled with some very special trips each month, and we look forward to Spring Retreat next weekend at HEB Camp (Windsong) and the campus-wide Easter outreach called "REZ Week." These activities are very meaningful, but as we have discussed this year, don't forget to intentionally make the effort to let every part of your life be CRUCIFORM!

If you graduate this semester, please be sure you are in contact with Bunny or me about upcoming plans.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Bryan Elliott, Associate Minister

Ed Huston will be in the Worship Center with a series entitled, "The God of Second Chances: Jonah, Joel, and Obadiah." Dan Baker will be in the Fellowship Hall with Max Lucado's latest book/DVD series, "Outlive Your Life." Our Kenosis class, Women's class, Turning Point, College class, Hispanic group, and children's classes, and HUDDLES will all continue to meet at their usual times and places.

Hope to see you here!

RUST STREET MINISTRIES

Bob Knox, Director

The Garden of Eden

We have 38 plots this year and more people gardening than ever before ... these gardeners are not only helping others but are also helping themselves and their families live a healthier life style. Thanks to Farmers Daughter for donating seeds, pepper plants and tomato plants!

Since our partnership with Trend Furniture, Frank Shouse has built a mattress rack and Geral Sorrels designed and built a mattress dolly. So now we can transport any size mattress without safety concerns.

Remember April 8th and 9th is our chicken give-a-way from 9 am to noon.

KINGDOM KIDS

Lois Power, Children's Minister

Our Bible Bowl Team, made up of seventeen 3rd through 6th graders, was in Abilene yesterday participating in the 2011 Bible Bowl. This year they studied the Book of Revelation. It was challenging for these kiddos but their hard work, determination, and perseverance brought great rewards. Please find these kids today in their Bible Bowl shirts and tell them how proud we all are of them!
