

WORK DAY, SATURDAY, MAY 21st, 7am-1pm

Primarily for insurance and safety purposes, we need to insert a glass pane in all of our classroom doors. We have some folks who will be doing some prep work ahead of time, but we need several able bodied men and/or women who can help un-hinge/re-hinge and carry the doors, do some taping and painting, and other minor woodwork. We will serve breakfast at 7 am and then get our “assembly line” going. Your help is certainly appreciated. FMI, call Bryan Elliott @ 949-3701 or email him at bryanelliott@zipnet.us

RUST STREET MINISTRIES

Bob Knox, Director

A couple of our volunteers, Elaine Stewart & Dave Srader, made a trip to Ft. Davis this week to check on relatives and returned with a “wish list” from the emergency coordinator for victims of the devastating wildfires. All things “kitchen” was the request, so we sent out the call to the saints at JSCC for help. Thursday morning, we filled Dave’s truck to overflowing since he had graciously volunteered to take whatever we collected back to Ft. Davis! You are an amazing group of people and we serve an AWESOME GOD! Thank you one & all.

“Shining God’s Love into Learning”
Sunshine School

We are currently accepting enrollment for families who have children ages 18 months through 5 year olds who will not attend Kindergarten in the fall. Sunshine School is a Bible-based preschool with two and three day programs in age appropriate classrooms offered from 9:30 am to 1:30 pm. We have very small class sizes and a safe, weather-friendly indoor playground. Please call 949-2832 or email www.sunshineschool@zipnet.us for more information.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

CVTP – Let Go, Grab Hold, Move on by James Satterwhite
Our Vision Statement is to empower individuals to move on to productive lives. Isaiah 42:1,3 says, “Here is my servant, my chosen one in whom I delight. A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick, he will not snuff out.” Many of us are a “bruised reed”. There is hope! The CVTP ministry is growing in numbers. God is leading people to these special groups to deal with specific issues in their lives. I have had to personal experience of visiting the faith based 12 step program, the adult anger management class and the Bible study groups. We are happy to announce that CVTP is starting an Adolescent Anger Management class on Thursday evenings (start date TBA), 7 PM at the CVTP building located at 819 Rust Street. Phone 325-374-3458 FMI. I will be facilitating this class. There is no cost for any of these programs. I have seen the Lord change lives in these programs, including my own! People are thirsting for the “answers” to life. Society is providing the wrong information on how to solve these issues. Only our Lord has the right answers. For more information on how you can get involved in CVTP, use their services, or financially and prayerfully support this work, contact Dale Mathes or Tony Tharp or any of the Board of Directors. CVTP is a 501c3 organization and all contributions are tax deductible.

SUMMER IS ALMOST HERE!

Summer 2011 is just around the corner. I want to encourage all of our students to prepare for an epic summer with JSY. However, summer is not here yet. So, my challenge to you is to finish well. Do well on all of those tests and projects. Most importantly, finish well as you interact with your classmates. Remember our lessons on imago Dei and missio Dei. Join God in His mission to reach the world. Be His image in your schools and in your families. Be people who bring peace and the power of the resurrection to those around you.

You are blessed! Now, bless others!

RAMS FOR CHRIST

Doug Johnson, ASU Campus Minister

ASU campus parking lots and dorms have steadily emptied over the weekend. There is such a feeling of relief in the air that the semester is all over! At times like this as I see the mass exodus at the end of a simultaneously long, yet short year, I can’t help but hope all our efforts in the lives of students have left an impression. I ask, “what was meaningful to them; how could we have been better; what will they take with them from here?” It’s a huge responsibility God has blessed JSCC with—the time to share life with young adults and literally change their lives! Thank you God for this high calling.

MOMS: Thank you for being all you are in the midst of all life throws at families! Please keep it up!

JSY Seniors: We look forward to your big transition too!
