CONSIDER - ROOM 215
(FEBRUARY 5.12. & 19)

“...consider others better than yourself.” Philippians 2.3
In I Thessalonians 1.6, Paul challenges the Thessalonian church to be “Imitators of us”. The rest of chapter one and the bulk of chapter two talk about what that actually looks like.

This section of scripture is a commentary on Paul’s sacrifice for the church, and the impact that had. Are we really expected to imitate that?

Facilitated by Len Boling and Trey Smith

USE - CHAPEL (FEBRUARY 5.12. & 19)

A study of the discovery and implementation of Spiritual Gifts. We’ll look at what they are and are not, why God gives us gifts, and how to employ them.

Facilitated by Phil Gold

DREAM - GYM (ONLY MEETS ON FEBRUARY 26)

In this combined class, we will take some time to discuss and dream up some ways that we might best begin implementing some of our vision objectives. Bring your creativity and your ideas as we begin the practical work of putting our vision into practice.

Facilitated by Scott Allen

BE - ROOM 214
(FEBRUARY 5.12. & 19)

Being God’s people is a calling into a life that sets us apart from the world. What motivates and unifies us to treat ourselves and those around us differently? Come discuss how we can be active participants in bringing the Gospel to our community in a tangible way that demonstrates God’s love, mercy, and grace to those “random” and “regular” people in our lives.

Facilitated by Michael O’Briant and Sam Young

GROW - FELLOWSHIP HALL
(FEBRUARY 5.12. & 19)

As Christ-followers, we should always be seeking to grow in our knowledge of and love for God. Join us as we discuss what it means to pursue spiritual growth.

Facilitated by Jason and Alyse Creed
