Listen: San Angelo Speaks

Conversations with San Angelo Civic Leaders

Just as you have an Oikos, Johnson Street Church has one, as well, our community. During our Summer Speaker Series, we'll get to see just how well we know San Angelo. Join us to learn behind the scenes information about our community and where and how you can get involved in blessing the Johnson Street Church Oikos.

The 2021 Summer Speaker Series will highlight four areas of community significance surrounding the local Foster Care crisis, the state of our Minority Community, the health and well-being of local Law Enforcement, and our closest neighbor, Angelo State University. There will be a brief Q & A following each speaker. Each evening will conclude with refreshments on the front lawn.

June 16 - 7:00pm Kassie Coffey - Director of Concho Valley Transition Center/Concho Valley Home for Girls

Kassie will address the Foster Care crisis and needs of our Oikos.

June 23 - 7:00pm John Pope - Pastor of Galilee Missionary Baptist Church

John will address the state of the Minority Community in our Oikos.

June 30 - 7:00pm Frank Carter - Police Chief, San Angelo Police Department

Frank will address the state of our LEOs in our Oikos.

July 7 - 7:00pm Lt. General Ronnie Hawkins, Jr. - President, Angelo State University

Ronnie will address the state of the ASU community and our opportunities to serve this part of our Oikos.
