A very heartfelt THANK YOU to everyone who helped provide gifts for the children of Bradford Elementary through House of Faith. Even in the most trying times this church family digs deep to help others. We are overwhelmed with the generosity of our church family and know that many children will have a little happier holiday because of you. Whether you donated online or in person, or even just prayed over these children and the House of Faith ministry, thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

3rd Quarter Financial Report - as of October 31, 2020 (end of 3rd quarter of fiscal year) our giving for the year was $974,779. This is $109,236 below our budget requirement. Our expenses through the 3rd quarter were $1,002,613, giving us a deficit balance of $27,834. We have worked very diligently stay within our means and we appreciate your generosity and faithful stewardship. As the calendar year comes to a close, please consider a one-time gift that would help us "narrow the gap."

With much appreciation, Bryan Elliott for the Finance Committee and Eldership. Blessings.
