

Jennifer Ashlock has been supported by Johnson Street church of Christ in two mission works in Africa since 2007. First, she worked as a teacher to the children of other missionaries in Uganda. Since 2001 she has worked as an administrator at the Kenya church of Christ Children's Home. She has served as the sole administrator there since 2016. The home houses between 50-60 children and employs 18 staff with 15 teachers at the school or on the children's home campus. Jennifer is the daughter of Cyndy and the late Jim Ashlock, sister to Ben and Leslie and the doting aunt of Drew and Kate Ashlock.

Thank you for joining us for worship today. We are so glad you are here. Our desire is that God would bless and direct this time together and that our worship is in Spirit and in Truth.

Our Sunday Morning Spring Adult Bible class series will be based on the recent book by Leonard Allen, Dean of the College of Bible and Ministry at Lipscomb University in Nashville, TN. "After centuries of neglect, there is a renewed interest in the Holy Spirit. Many are beginning to realize that the Spirit is not a junior member of the Trinity, tame and shy. Poured Out, explains why the church limited the Spirit for so long and how we can come to know the Spirit better and more fully." (ACU Press) Thanks, Bryan Elliott
